⁽²⁾ Entry fees are non-refundable

- 3. ENTRIES ⁽²⁾ – An Entry shall consist of two (2) samples, no smaller than 16 ounces or 1 pound each. If cheese is produced in sizes smaller than 1 pound, submit a minimum of 2 pounds total (unless otherwise indicated in a class). Please also include labels, and empty consumer size packaging containers along with entry, for display to be used at the LA County Fair Dairy Competition display in the Los Angeles International Tasting Room. LIST CLASS/CATEGORY NUMBERS ON ENTRY FORM. Entries are assigned random judging codes, then placed in the proper temperature refrigeration and freezers, and separated into categories. All deliveries should be received by the shipping deadline April 24. Before judging, professional cheese mongers and servers break down and serve the dairy products in/on coded plates, bowls, and cups which are then placed in front of each judge. Each judge tastes the dairy products and makes selections independently.

All samples must meet the standard of the California State Food and Agriculture Code and are subject to testing at the discretion of the Fair management and/or judges.

- 4. JUDGING: The Los Angeles International Dairy Competition uses a 100-point scoring system based on Flavor, Texture, Appearance, Bacteria, Finish, Salt, melting quality, depending on the product.

The decision of the judges is final, and no changes will be made to awards after the judging is complete.

- 5. AWARDS and MEDALS: We award Gold, Silver, Bronze Best of Class, Best of Division and Best of Show. An award or medal is given to a producer for a particular dairy product. Best of Class dairy products will compete for Best of Division. Best of Division dairy products will compete for the “the Best of Show” (Best Dairy product of the Competition). The medal or award may only be displayed on the identical product on which the Best of Show, Best of Division, Best of Class, Gold, Silver or Bronze Medal was awarded. The Los Angeles International Dairy Competition will offer, for purchase, Best of Show, Best of Class, Gold, Silver, and Bronze award seals to the producers that won these awards.

6. MAY 4, 2026, the competition results will be posted on the website www.LADairyComp.com.
7. May 7 - 31, 2026 is the Los Angeles County Fair. All International Competition award-winning products will be displayed in the Tasting Room. There will also be gold medal wine and olive oil tastings, and education seminars featuring entrants from Olive Oil, Wine, Spirits and Dairy competitions in the Tasting Room education classroom.
